LIST OF ALL GENERAL AND SPECIAL PAROLE AND POST-PRISON SUPERVISION CONDITIONS

An individual on Parole or Post-Prison Supervision is subject to all listed General Conditions and any Special Conditions ordered by the Board. Prior to release, the Board may modify the conditions at any time. After parole/post-prison supervision has commenced, conditions may be added, pursuant to OAR 255-070-0015 up to 60 days from release, or upon the signed consent of the offender or after the offender has the opportunity to be heard, orally or in writing.

As used in this document, the following words have the following meanings: "Supervised Person" or "Offender" means persons released to parole or post-prison supervision. "Parole and Probation Officer", "Supervising Officer" and "PO" shall also mean the supervisory officer under the parole or post-prison supervision systems.

GENERAL CONDITIONS
Ordered for every person on supervision

GC A. Pay supervision fees, fines, restitution, or other fees ordered by the Court or the Board.

GC B. Submit to testing for controlled substance, cannabis, or alcohol use if the supervised person has a history of substance abuse or if there is a reasonable suspicion that the supervised person has illegally used controlled substances.

GC C. Participate in a substance abuse evaluation as directed by the supervising officer and follow the recommendations of the evaluator if there are reasonable grounds to believe there is a history of substance abuse.

GC D. Remain in the State of Oregon until written permission to leave is granted by the Department of Corrections or a county community corrections agency. Extradition is waived if the person under supervision absconds from supervision and leaves the state.

GC E. Not change residence without prior permission from the Department of Corrections or a county community corrections agency and inform the parole and probation officer of any change in employment.

GC F. Permit the parole and probation officer to visit the supervised person or the person's work site or residence and to conduct a walk-through of the common areas and of the rooms in the residence occupied by or under the control of the supervised person.

GC G. Consent to the search of person, vehicle, or premises upon the request of a representative of the supervising officer if the supervising officer has reasonable grounds to believe that evidence of a violation will be found, and submit to fingerprinting or photographing, or both, when requested by the Department of Corrections or a county community corrections agency for supervision purposes.

GC H. Obey all laws, municipal, county, state and federal, and in circumstances in which state and federal law conflict, obey state law.

GC I. Promptly and truthfully answer all reasonable inquiries by the Department of Corrections or a county community corrections agency.

GC J. Not possess weapons, firearms, or dangerous animals.

GC K. Report as directed.

GC L. If recommended by the supervising officer, successfully complete sex offender treatment program approved by the supervising officer and submit to polygraph at the direction of the supervising officer if currently under supervision or previously convicted of sex crimes ORS 163A.005 or like crime committed in another jurisdiction.

GC M. Participate in a mental health evaluation as directed by the supervising officer and follow the recommendation of the evaluator.

GC N. If required to report as a sex offender, shall report, in person, to the Department of State Police, a city police department or a county sheriff's office, in the county to which the person was discharged, paroled, released or in which the person was otherwise placed:
(A) Within 10 days following discharge, release on parole, post-prison supervision or other supervised or conditional release;
(B) Within 10 days of a change of residence;
(C) Within 10 days of a legal change of name;
(D) Once each year within 10 days of the person's birth date, regardless of whether the person changed residence;
(E) Within 10 days of the first day the person works at, carries on a vocation at or attends an institution of higher education;
(F) Within 10 days of a change in work, vocation, or attendance status at an institution of higher education; and
(G) At least 21 days prior to any intended travel outside of the United States.

GC O. Submit to a risk and needs assessment as directed by the supervising officer and follow reasonable recommendations resulting from the assessment.

GC P. Be under the supervision of the Department of Corrections and its representatives or other supervisory authority and abide by their direction and counsel.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS
Ordered on a case-by-case basis

1. Be evaluated by a mental health evaluator and follow all treatment recommendations.

2. Continue to take any psychiatric or psychotropic medication that was prescribed prior to or at the time of release from custody until otherwise directed by a physician. At the direction of the parole officer, the supervised person shall undergo a psychiatric evaluation and take any medications recommended. The supervised person shall comply with a medication monitoring program at the request of the parole officer.

3. Without prior written approval of the supervising officer, a prohibition against contacting a person under 18 years of age.

4. Without prior written approval of the supervising officer, a prohibition against being present more than one time at or on property adjacent to a place primarily intended for the use by persons under 18 years of age or places where they regularly congregate.

5. Submit to random polygraph tests as part of a sex offender surveillance program. Failure to submit to the tests may result in return to custody. Specific responses to the tests shall not be the sole basis for return to custody.

6. Enter and complete or be successfully discharged from a recognized and approved sex offender treatment program at the direction of the supervising officer, which may include polygraph and plethysmograph testing. Abide by all rules and conditions of the sex offender treatment program. Abide by a prohibition of sexually deviant materials, activities, or behavior that the offender may use for the purpose of deviant sexual arousal, unless otherwise allowed by the PO in writing.

7. Pay court ordered restitution to the clerk of the court of the county of sentencing (ORS 137.106, OAR 255-065-0005).

8. Condition no longer used

9. Without prior written approval of the supervising officer, shall not possess or use intoxicating substances, including but not limited to alcohol, inhalants, or control substances (except pursuant to a medical prescription).

10. Other: Special conditions may be imposed that are not listed above when the Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision determines that such conditions are necessary.

- If offender was ordered to pay a compensatory fine: Pay compensatory fine as ordered.
- If offender has been extradited from another jurisdiction: Offender is required to re-pay all extradition costs.
- If the offender was convicted of a crime of domestic violence: Do not enter into or participate in any romantic or sexual relationships or encounters with any person without the prior written permission of the PO.
- If the individual gained targeted access to victims through a relationship with the victim's caregiver: Do not form or engage in personal relationships with persons responsible for the care of minors without prior written permission from the PO.
- If offender is convicted of a sex crime, Assault I or Assault II against a minor and victim requests: Offender shall not reside within three miles of the victim.
    - County size requirement: County of residence must have population larger than 130,000 people.
    - Exception if offender demonstrates by a preponderance of the evidence that no mental intimidation or pressure was brought to bear during the commission of the crime.
    - Exception if offender demonstrates by preponderance of the evidence that the condition would deprive the person of a residence that would be materially significant in aiding in the rehabilitation of the person and their success on parole/post-prison supervision.
    - Exception if residence proposed is a halfway house
    - If the victim moves to within three miles of the offender's residence, the supervisory authority may not require the offender to change residences.
    - Must be requested by the victim in order for the Board to impose
- If offender was convicted of stalking or violating a court's stalking protective order, the Board may impose reasonable residency restrictions.
- If the offender is releasing from a prison sentence for a sex offense:
  Sex Offender Package A:

(a) Agreement to comply with any curfew set by the Board, the supervisory authority, or the supervising officer.

(b) A prohibition against contacting a person under 18 years of age without the prior written approval of the Board, supervisory authority, or supervising officer.

(c) A prohibition against being present more than one time, without the prior written approval of the Board, supervisory authority, or supervising officer, at a place where persons under 18 years of age regularly congregate.

(d) In addition to the prohibition under subparagraph (C) of this paragraph, a prohibition against being present, without the prior written approval of the Board or supervising officer, at, or on property adjacent to, a school, childcare center, playground, or other place intended for use primarily by persons under 18 years of age.

(e) A prohibition against working or volunteering at a school, day care center, park, playground, or other place where persons under 18 years of age regularly congregate.

(f) Entry into and completion of or successful discharge from a sex offender treatment program approved by the Board, supervisory authority, or supervising officer. The supervised person shall abide by all rules and conditions of the sex offender treatment program. The program may include polygraph and plethysmograph testing. The person is responsible for paying for the treatment program.

(g) A prohibition against any contact with the victim, directly or indirectly, unless approved by the victim, the person's treatment provider and the Board, supervisory authority, or supervising officer.

(h) Unless otherwise indicated for the treatment required under subparagraph (F) of this paragraph, a prohibition against viewing, listening to, owning or possessing any sexually stimulating visual or auditory materials that are relevant to the person's deviant behavior.

(i) Agreement to consent to a search of the person or the vehicle or residence of the person upon the request of a representative of the Board or supervisory authority if the representative has reasonable grounds to believe that evidence of a violation of a condition of post-prison supervision will be found.

(j) Participation in random polygraph examinations to obtain information for risk management and treatment. The person is responsible for paying the expenses of the examinations. The results of a polygraph examination under this subparagraph may not be used in evidence in a hearing to prove a violation of post-prison supervision.

(k) Maintenance of a driving log and a prohibition against driving a motor vehicle alone unless approved by the Board, supervisory authority, or supervising officer.

(l) A prohibition against using a post-office box unless approved by the Board, supervisory authority, or supervising officer.

(m) A prohibition against residing in any dwelling in which another sex offender who is on probation, parole or post-prison supervision resides unless approved by the Board or supervising officer, or in which more than one other sex offender who is on probation, parole or post-prison supervision resides unless approved by the Board or a designee of the Board or director. As soon as practicable, the supervising officer of a person subject to the requirements of this subparagraph shall review the person’s living arrangement with the persons’ sex offender treatment provider to ensure that the arrangement supports the goals of offender rehabilitation and community safety. As used in this subparagraph:

(i) "Dwelling" has the meaning given that term in ORS 469.160.

(ii) "Dwelling" does not include a residential treatment facility or a halfway house.

(iii) "Halfway house" means a publicly or privately operated profit or nonprofit residential facility that provides rehabilitative care and treatment for sex offenders.

- If the offender has recent or significant history of committing sexual offenses, or if their current crime had a sexual assault or a significant sexual component but did not result in a conviction for a sex crime: Sex Offender Package B: includes Special Conditions 3, 4, 5, 6, and 12.
- Enhanced Electronic Device Condition for offenders who gained access to victim(s) through the use of the internet or where computers/other electronic devices played a role in the crime: The supervised person is prohibited from accessing personal computers and cell phones except as authorized in this condition. The supervised person may access or use one approved personal computer (for example, desktop computer, laptop computer, tablet computer). The supervised person also may access or use a single approved cell phone. All access or use of a personal computer or cell phone must be for a legitimate and lawful purpose and shall be accessed or used in a manner that is consistent with the supervised person's rehabilitation or public safety.

  The supervised person must obtain approval from the supervising officer for any personalcomputer or cell phone prior to access or use. The supervised person may be subject to a requirement to purchase and install monitoring software on specific types of approved devices (for example, a smart phone). At their discretion, the supervising officer may approve additional personal computers or cell phones.

  Access or use of a personal computer or cell phone is subject to the supervised person's agreement to adhere to any restrictions on the access or use by sex offender treatment provider rules, and any supervising officer directives. Access or use is suject to the supervised person's agreement to monitoring and random examinations of any computer or cell phone by the supervising officer, including but not limited to an examination of any digital media, text messages, internet search history, and call logs.

  The supervised person may use electronic devices approved by an employer, provided that the supervised person's use is lawful, within the course and scope of employment, and is conducted in a manner that is consistent with the supervised person's rehabilitation or public safety.
- Media Storage Device Condition for offenders who used media storage in furtherance of significant criminal conduct: The supervised person shall inform the supervising officer of electronic devices the supervised person possesses or uses that are designed for the storage, retrieval, or viewing of digital media (i.e. disc drives, USB drives, hard drives, gaming systems, etc) of any kind including photographs, images, audio recordings, and video recordings. Use electronic media storage devices the supervised person possesses or uses are subject to monitoring and random or unannounced examinations by the supervising officer, including examination of any digital media on the device, and may be subject to other restrictions, including restrictions on any use that is inconsistent with the supervised person's rehabilitation or public safety. The supervised person may use electronic media storage devices approved by an employer, provided that the supervised person's use is lawful, within the course and scope of employment, and is consistent with the supervised person's rehabilitation or public safety.

- Prohibition against Possessing Specific Electronic Devices – to be imposed ONLY after an offender is found in violation of either the Enhanced Electronic Device Condition or the Media Storage Device Condition: Do not own, possess, or use the following electronic devices or electronic media storage devices, without prior permission of the supervising officer: _____.

11. No Contact Condition
    - For victims of conviction that resulted in current incarceration or supervision: No contact with victim(s), _____, including direct, indirect, second- or third-party contact or knowingly being within 1,000 feet of a victim's residence, employment, school, daycare, or motor vehicle without prior written consent of the PO.
        - May also be applied to victims of prior criminal convictions, persons currently protected by active civil protective orders
    - For other people who have requested no contact: Offender shall have no contact direct or indirect with those listed below: _____.

12. Consent to search of computer or other electronic equipment upon the request of the supervising officer or their representative, if the supervising officer has reasonable grounds to believe that evidence of a violation will be found.